

Wine Spectator

INSIDER – DECEMBER 12, 2007

92

DOMAINE DE BEAURENARD CHATEAUNEUF-DU-PAPE 2005

“This has lots of juicy grip, with a strong, briary undertow supporting red and black licorice, hot stone, currant paste, tobacco and chestnut notes. The long, muscular finish is typical of the vintage. Best from 2010 through 2025.” –James Molesworth

Wine Spectator

INSIDER – DECEMBER 12, 2007

96

DOMAINE DE BEAURENARD
CHATEAUNEUF-DU-PAPE
BOISRENARD 2005

“This lush beauty really tames the vintage’s rugged structure, with gorgeous boysenberry and raspberry confiture layered with mocha, Turkish coffee, licorice and fig paste notes. The long finish has great grip and the exotic spice notes linger beautifully. Best from 2010 through 2030. From France.” - James Molesworth