

Keep a little German in your Riesling aisle.

America's #1 Imported Riesling

There's been a lot of action in the Riesling aisle lately, but one thing hasn't changed: Schmitt Sohne Riesling is still America's favorite German Riesling.

It's easy to see why. Schmitt Sohne Rieslings are everything that great German Rieslings are supposed to be: richly fragrant, light-to-medium-bodied, with a lively, fruity acidity and earthy minerality. They're the kind of easy drinking, go-with-anything wines that only dedicated vintners, steeped in a centuries-long winemaking tradition, can make.

No wonder consumers from casual wine drinkers to dedicated connoisseurs snap them up by the caseload. For Schmitt Sohne was here well before all the me-too brands arrived – and we'll be here long after they're gone.

Schmitt Sohne Riesling is imported by America's leading Riesling importer, Schmitt Sohne, Inc. Riesling is the world's most food-friendly wine and experts agree that the best Rieslings in the world come from Germany. Schmitt Sohne offers consumers authentic German Rieslings and Riesling blends in a wide variety of taste profiles, across price points from premium to value to budget. Our brands range from serious and traditional to friendly and fun, to suit a wide range of consumer tastes.

Qualitatswein This delicate, moderately light-bodied Riesling has a tart, Granny Smith apple characteristic that is crisp and lively on the palate. Perfect by itself or to complement mild cheeses, salads, shellfish and poultry.	Kabinett This medium-bodied Riesling has peach and russet apple aromas, a firm and fruity palate and crisp acidity that result in a well balanced, easy to drink wine. Perfect as an aperitif or to complement a wide array of foods, from pork and ham to fish and poultry.	Spätlese This fully-ripened Riesling has highly extracted fruit flavors of apricots and peaches coupled with enough acidity to give it a firm and juicy mouth feel. Excellent by itself or to complement soft or blue vein cheeses, richer style food with sauces and oriental dishes.	Auslese This Riesling is produced from individually selected overripe grapes resulting in a full-bodied, luscious wine with hints of apricot, nectarine and honey. The intense flavors and lingering finish complement a variety of cheeses, fruits, richly seasoned foods and desserts.
